Strategic Roadmap for Arab Universities' Global Advancement

ShanghaiRanking Excellence Program

The Association of Arab Universities (AAU), in collaboration with ShanghaiRanking, is organizing an exclusive program designed to empower Arab universities to enhance their performance and strengthen their international research visibility by providing them with strategic insights, benchmarking tools, and specialized expert guidance.

What the program offers?

- Gain an understanding of the Academic Ranking of World Universities (ARWU) and the Global Ranking of Academic Subjects (GRAS).
- Learn about the ranking indicators and methodologies used in these rankings.
- Understand the data sources upon which the rankings are based.
- Explore strategies for improving institutional performance in global rankings
- Explore performance indicators at both the institutional and academic subject levels.
- Address common challenges and misconceptions related to the ShanghaiRanking.

Exclusive University Consultation

Each participating university receives a dedicated one-to-one session with ShanghaiRanking experts to:

- 1 Review current ranking performance
- 2 Identify strengths and improvement areas
- 3 Receive customized recommendations
- 4 Develop data-driven strategies for global advancement
